The Court may affirm, modify or set aside the Board's order in whole or in part, or may remand the case to the Board for further evidence and may in its discretion stay the effect of the Board's order pending its determination of the case. The court's decision has the force of a decree in equity.

(k) In any case where the Board renders an order imposing discipline against a permittee or an individual granted privileges under Section 250q of this chapter, the Board shall examine its records to determine whether the individual or firm holds a license or practice privilege in any other state or is subject to the PCAOB's authority; and if so, the Board shall notify the State Boards of Accountancy and any other regulatory authorities, including the PCAOB if applicable, of its decision immediately in the case of a consent order and in all other cases when the time for giving notice of an appeal from the Board’s order has expired. The notice must indicate whether or not the subject order has been appealed and whether or not the subject order has been stayed. In the alternative, the Board may report such disciplinary actions to a multistate enforcement information network. Subject to Section 250a (i) of this chapter, the Board may also furnish investigative information and the hearing record relating to proceedings resulting in disciplinary action in such cases to such other regulatory authorities upon request.

§250g ENFORCEMENT-GROUNDS FOR DISCIPLINE

(a) After notice and hearing pursuant to this chapter, the Board may revoke any permit issued under Sections 250c or 250d of this chapter or corresponding provisions of prior law or revoke or suspend any such permit, or refuse to renew any such permit for a period of not more than five years, reprimand, censure, or limit the scope of practice of any permittee; impose an administrative fine not exceeding $10,000 per violation; limit or revoke the practice privileges, and impose an administrative fine not exceeding $10,000 per violation of any individual under section 250q of this chapter, or place any permittee on probation, all with or without terms, conditions, and limitations, for any one or more of the following reasons:

(1) Dishonesty, fraud or deceit in obtaining a permit;

(2) Cancellation, revocation, suspension or refusal to renew a permit or privileges under Section 250q for disciplinary reasons in any other state for any cause;

(3) Failure, on the part of a permittee under sections 250c or 250d, to maintain compliance with the requirements for issuance or renewal of such certificate or permit to report changes to the Board under sections 250c (f) or 250d (f);

(4) Revocation or suspension of the right to practice by any state or federal regulatory authority or by the PCAOB;

(5) Dishonesty, fraud, deceit or gross negligence in the performance of services as a permittee or individual granted privileges under section 250q or in the filing or failure to file one's own income tax returns;

(6) Violation of any provision of this chapter or rule promulgated by the Board under this chapter or violation of professional standards;

(7) Violation of any rule of professional conduct promulgated by the Board under Section 250a (g) of this chapter;

(8) Conviction of a felony, or of any other crime an element of which is dishonesty, fraud or deceit, under the laws of the United States, of the Territory, or of any state, if the acts involved would have constituted a crime under the laws of the Virgin Islands;
(9) Performance of any fraudulent act while holding a permit or privilege issued under this chapter or prior law;

(10) Any conduct reflecting adversely upon the permittee’s fitness to perform services while a permittee, or individual granted privileges under Section 250q; or

(11) Making any false or misleading statement or verification, in support of an application for a permit filed by another.

(b) Fines as assessed under subsection (a) must be deposited in the Consumer Protection Fund of the Department of Licensing & Consumer Affairs. Recovered costs as assessed under subsection (a) must be deposited in the Virgin Islands Board of Public Accountancy Fund.

(c) In lieu of or in addition to any remedy specifically provided in subsection (a) of this section, the Board may require of a permittee either or both of the following:

(1) A peer review conducted in such fashion as the Board may specify; and

(2) Satisfactory completion of such continuing professional education programs as the Board may specify.

(d) In any proceeding in which a remedy provided by subsections (a) or (c) of this section is imposed, the Board may also require the respondent permittee to pay the costs of the proceeding.

§250h ENFORCEMENT—INVESTIGATIONS

(a) The Board or its designee may, upon receipt of a complaint or other information suggesting violations of this chapter or of the rules of the Board, conduct investigations to determine whether there is probable cause to institute proceedings under Sections 250f, 250k, or 250l of this chapter against any person or firm for such violation, but an investigation under this section is not a prerequisite to such proceedings if a determination of probable cause can be made without investigation. In aid of such investigations, the Board or the chairperson, or a designee may issue subpoenas to compel witnesses to testify and produce evidence, or both testify and produce evidence.

(b) The Board may designate a member, or any other person of appropriate competence, to serve as investigating officer to conduct an investigation. Upon completion of an investigation, the investigating officer shall file a report with the Board. The Board shall find probable cause or lack of probable cause upon the basis of the report or shall return the report to the investigating officer for further investigation. Unless there has been a determination of probable cause, the report of the investigating officer, the complaint, if any, the testimony and documents submitted in support of the complaint or gathered in the investigation, and the fact of pendency of the investigation must be treated as confidential information and must not be disclosed to any person except law enforcement authorities and, to the extent deemed necessary in order to conduct the investigation, the subject of the investigation, persons whose complaints are being investigated, and witnesses questioned in the course of the investigation.

(c) Upon a finding of probable cause, if the subject of the investigation is a permittee or an individual with privileges under Section 250q of this chapter, the Board shall direct that a complaint be issued under section 250f of this chapter, and if the subject of the investigation is not a permittee or an individual with privileges under Section 250q, the Board shall take appropriate action under sections 250k or 250l of this chapter. Upon a finding of no probable cause, the Board shall close the matter and shall thereafter release information relating thereto only with the consent of the person or firm under investigation.

(d) The Board may review the publicly available professional work of permittees or an individual with privileges under Section 250q of this chapter on a general and random basis, without any requirement of a formal complaint or suspicion of impropriety. If as a result of such review the Board discovers reasonable grounds for a more specific investigation, the Board may proceed under subsections (a) through (c) of this section.

§250i REINSTATEMENT

(a) In any case where the Board has suspended or revoked a certificate or a permit or revoked or limited privileges under Section 250q or refused to renew a certificate, permit, the Board may, upon application in writing by the person or firm affected and for good cause shown, modify the suspension, or reissue the certificate, permit, or registration or remove the limitation or revocation of privileges under Section 250q.

(b) The Board shall by rule specify the manner in which such applications must be made, the times within which they must be made, and the circumstances in which hearings must be held thereon.

(c) Before reissuing, or terminating the suspension of, a certificate or permit under this section or of privileges under section 250q, and as a condition thereto, the Board may require the applicant therefor to show successful completion of specified continuing professional education; and the Board may make the reinstatement of a certificate, permit or registration or of privileges under section 250q conditional and subject to satisfactory completion of a peer review conducted in such fashion as the Board may specify.

§250j UNLAWFUL ACTS

(a) Only permittees and individuals who have practice privileges under section 250q of this chapter may issue a report on financial statements of any person, firm, organization, or governmental unit or offer to render or render any attest or compilation service, as defined herein. This restriction does not prohibit any act of a public official or public employee in the performance of that person’s duties as such; or prohibit the performance by any non-permittees of other services involving the use of accounting skills, including the preparation of tax returns, management advisory services, and the preparation of financial statements without the issuance of reports thereon. Non-permittees may prepare financial statements and issue non-attest transmittals or information thereon which do not purport to be in compliance with the Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services (SSARS).

(b) Permittees and individuals who have practice privileges under Section 250q of this chapter performing attest or compilation services shall provide those services in accordance with applicable professional standards.

(c) A person who does not hold a valid certificate or a practice privilege pursuant to section 250q of this chapter may not use or assume the title ‘certified public accountant’, or the abbreviation ‘CPA’ or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that such person is a certified public accountant.

(d) No firm may provide attest services or assume or use the title ‘certified public accountants’, or the abbreviation ‘CPAs’, or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that such firm is a CPA firm unless

(1) the firm holds a valid permit issued under Section 250d of this chapter, and

(2) ownership of the firm is in accord with this Act and rules promulgated by the Board.

(e) A person or firm that does not hold a valid certificate, permit or registration issued under Sections 250c or 250d of this chapter may not assume or use the title ‘certified accountant’, ‘chartered accountant’, ‘enrolled accountant’, ‘licensed accountant’, ‘registered accountant’, ‘accredited accountant’, or any other title or designation likely to be confused with the titles ‘certified public accountant’ or ‘public accountant’, or use any of the abbreviations ‘CA’, ‘LA’, ‘RA’, ‘AA’, or similar abbreviation likely to be confused with the abbreviations ‘CPA’ or ‘PA.’ The title ‘Enrolled Agent’ or ‘EA’ may be used only by individuals so designated by the Internal Revenue Service.

(f) Non-permittees may not use language in any statement relating to the financial affairs of a person or entity that is conventionally used by permittees in reports on financial statements. In this regard, the Board shall issue safe harbor language non-permittees may use in connection with such financial information.

(2) A person or firm that does not hold a valid certificate or permit issued under sections 250c or 250d of this chapter may not assume or use any title or designation that includes the words ‘accountant’, ‘auditor’, or ‘accounting’, in connection with any other language, including the language of a report, which implies that such person or firm holds such a certificate or permit or has special competence as an accountant or auditor, provided. However, this subsection does not prohibit any officer, partner, member, manager or employee of any firm or organization from affixing that person’s own signature to any statement in reference to the financial affairs of such firm or organization with any wording designating the position, title, or office that the person holds therein nor prohibit any act of a public official or employee in the performance of the person’s duties as such.
(g) No person holding a certificate or firm holding a permit under this chapter may use a professional or firm name or designation that is misleading about the legal form of the firm, or about the persons who are partners, officers, members, managers or shareholders of the firm, or about any other matter. However, names of one or more former partners, members, managers or shareholders may be included in the name of a firm or its successor. A common brand name, including common initials, used by a CPA Firm in its name, is not misleading if the firm is a Network Firm, as defined in the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct (“Code”) and, when offering or rendering services that require independence under AICPA standards, the firm must comply with the Code’s applicable standards on independence.

(h) None of the foregoing provisions of this section has any application to a person or firm holding a certification, designation, degree, or license granted in a foreign country entitling the holder thereof to engage in the practice of public accountancy or its equivalent in such country, whose activities in this Territory are limited to the provision of professional services to persons or firms who are residents of, governments of, or business entities of the country in which the person holds such entitlement, who performs no attest or compilation services as defined and who issues no reports with respect to the financial statements of any other persons, firms, or governmental units in this Territory and who does not use in the Territory any title or designation other than the one under which the person practices in such country, followed by a translation of such title or designation into the English language, if it is in a different language, and by the name of such country.

(i) No holder of a certificate issued under section 250c of this chapter may perform attest services through any business form that does not hold a valid permit issued under section 250d of this chapter.

(j) No individual permittee may issue a report in standard form upon a compilation of financial information through any form of business that does not hold a valid permit issued under section 250d of this chapter unless the report discloses the name of the business through which the individual is issuing the report, and the individual:

1. signs the compilation report identifying the individual as a CPA;
2. meets the competency requirement provided in applicable standards; and
3. undergoes no less frequently than once every three years, a peer review conducted in such manner as the Board shall by rule specify, and such review must include verification that such individual has met the competency requirements set out in professional standards for such services.

(k) Nothing herein prohibits a practicing attorney or firm of attorneys from preparing or presenting records or documents customarily prepared by an attorney or firm of attorneys in connection with the attorney’s professional work in the practice of law.

(l)(1) A permittee may not for a commission recommend or refer to a client any product or service, or for a commission recommend or refer any product or service to be supplied by a client, or receive a commission, when the licensee also performs for that client:

(A) An audit or review of a financial statement; or

(B) A compilation of a financial statement when the permittee expects, or reasonably might expect, that a third party will use the financial statement and the permittee’s compilation report does not disclose a lack of independence; or

(C) An examination of prospective financial information.

(2) This prohibition applies during the period in which the permittee is engaged to perform any of the services listed in paragraph (1), and the period covered by any historical financial statements involved in such listed services.

(3) A permittee who is not prohibited by this section from performing services for or receiving a commission and who is paid or expects to be paid a commission shall disclose that fact to any person or entity to whom the permittee recommends or refers a product or service to which the commission relates.

(4) Any permittee who accepts a referral fee for recommending or referring any service of a permittee to any person or entity or who pays a referral fee to obtain a client shall disclose such acceptance or payment to the client.

(m)(1) A permittee may not:

(A) perform for a contingent fee any professional services for, or receive such a fee from a client for whom the permittee or the permittee’s firm performs:

   (i) An audit or review of a financial statement;

   (ii) A compilation of a financial statement when the permittee expects, or reasonably might expect, that a third party will use the financial statement and the permittee’s compilation report does not disclose a lack of independence; or

   (iii) An examination of prospective financial information; or

   (B) Prepare an original or amended tax return or claim for a tax refund for contingent fee for any client.

(2) The prohibition in paragraph (1) above applies during the period in which the permittee is engaged to perform any of the services listed above and the period covered by any historical financial statements involved in any such listed services.

(3) Except as stated in the next sentence, a contingent fee is a fee established for the performance of any service pursuant to an arrangement in which no fee will be charged unless a specified finding or result is attained, or in which the amount of the fee is otherwise dependent upon the finding or result of such service. Solely for purposes of this section, fees are not regarded as being contingent if fixed by courts or other public authorities, or, in tax matters, if determined based on the results of judicial proceedings or the findings of governmental agencies. A permittee’s fees may vary depending, on the complexity of services rendered.

(n) Notwithstanding provision to the contrary in this section, it is not a violation of this section for a firm that does not hold a valid permit under section 250d of this chapter and that does not have an office in the Territory to provide its professional services in the Territory so long as the firm complies with the requirements of section 250d (a) (2) or (3), whichever is applicable.

§250k INJUNCTIONS AGAINST UNLAWFUL ACTS

Whenever, as a result of an investigation under section 250h of this chapter or otherwise, the Board believes that any person or firm has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices that constitute or will constitute a violation of section 250j of this chapter, the Board may make application to the appropriate court for an order enjoining such acts or practices, and upon a showing by the Board that such person or firm has engaged, or is about to engage, in any such acts or practices, an injunction, restraining order, or other order as may be appropriate shall be granted by such court.

§250l CRIMINAL PENALTIES

Any person who violates any provision of this chapter, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, is subject to a fine of not more than $2,000, or to imprisonment for not more than one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment. Whenever the Board has reason to believe that any person is liable to punishment under this section, it may certify the facts to the Attorney General of the Virgin Islands, who may in his discretion, cause appropriate proceedings to be brought.

§250m SINGLE ACT EVIDENCE OF PRACTICE

In any action brought under sections 250f, 250k or 250l of this chapter, evidence of the commission of a single act prohibited by this chapter is sufficient to justify a penalty, injunction, restraining order, or conviction, respectively, without evidence of a general course of conduct.

§250n CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATIONS

Except by permission of the client for whom a permittee performs services or the heirs, successors, or personal representatives of such client, a permittee under this chapter, may not voluntarily disclose information communicated to the permittee by the client relating to and in connection with services rendered to the client by the permittee. Such information is deemed confidential, but nothing herein may be construed as prohibiting the disclosure of information required to be disclosed by the standards of the public accounting profession in reporting on the examination of financial statements or as prohibiting compliance with applicable laws, government regulations or PCAOB requirements, disclosures in court proceedings, in investigations or proceedings under sections 250f or 250h of this chapter, in ethical investigations conducted by private professional organizations, or in the course of peer reviews, or to other persons active in the organization performing services for that client on a need to know basis or to persons in the entity who need this information for the sole purpose of assuring quality control.

§250o LICENSEES' WORKING PAPERS; CLIENTS' RECORDS

All statements, records, schedules, working papers and memoranda made by a certified public accountant or public accountant incident to or in the course of professional service to clients by such certified public accountant or public accountant, except reports submitted by a certified public accountant or public accountant to a client, are and remain the property of such certified public accountant or public accountant, in the absence of an express agreement between the certified public accountant or public accountant and the client to the contrary. No such statement, record, schedule, working paper or memorandum may be sold, transferred or bequeathed, without the consent of the client or the client’s personal representative or assignee, to anyone other than one or more surviving partners or new partners of such accountant.

§250p PRIVITY OF CONTRACT

(a) This section applies to all causes of action of the type specified herein filed on or after the effective date.

(b) This section governs any action based on negligence brought against any accountant or firm of accountants practicing in this State by any person or entity claiming to have been injured as a result of financial statements or other information examined, compiled, reviewed, certified, audited or otherwise reported or opined on by the defendant accountant or in the course of an engagement to provide other services.

(c) No action covered by this section may be brought unless:

(1) The plaintiff:

(A) is issuer or successor of the issuer, of the financial statements or other information examined, compiled, reviewed, certified, audited or otherwise reported or opined on by the defendant; and

(B) engaged the defendant licensee to examine, compile, review, certify, audit or otherwise report or render an opinion on such financial statements or to provide other services; or

(2) The defendant permittee or firm:

(A) was aware at the time the engagement was undertaken that the financial statements or other information were to be made available for use in connection with a specified transaction by the plaintiff who was specifically identified to the defendant accountant;

(B) was aware that the plaintiff intended to rely upon such financial statements or other information in connection with the specified transaction; and

(C) had direct contact and communication with the plaintiff and expressed by words or conduct the defendant accountant's understanding of the reliance on such financial statements or other information.

§250q SUBSTANTIAL EQUIVALENCY

(a)(1) An individual whose principal place of business is not in this Territory and who holds a valid license as a Certified Public Accountant from any state that the NASBA National Qualification Appraisal Service has verified to be in substantial equivalence with the CPA licensure requirements of the AICPA/NASBA Uniform Accountancy Act is presumed to have qualifications substantially equivalent to this State's requirements and shall have all the privileges of permittees of this Territory without the need to obtain a permit under sections 250c or 250d. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an individual who offers or renders professional services, whether in person, by mail, telephone or electronic means, under this section must be granted practice privileges in this Territory, and no notice or other submission must be provided by any such individual. Such an individual is subject to the requirements in paragraph (3) of this subsection.

(2) An individual licensee of another state exercising the privilege afforded under this section and the firm that employs that licensee hereby simultaneously consents, as a condition of the grant of this privilege:

(A) to the personal and subject matter jurisdiction and disciplinary authority of the Board,

(B) to comply with this chapter and the Board’s rules;

(C) to the condition that if the license from the state of the individual’s principal place of business is no longer valid, the individual shall cease offering or rendering professional services in the Virgin Islands individually and on behalf of a firm; and

(D) to the appointment of the State Board that issued their license as their agent upon whom process may be served in any action or proceeding by this Board against the licensee.

(3) An individual who has been granted practice privileges under this section and who for any entity with its home office in the Territory, performs any of the services listed in subparagraphs (A) through (C) may practice only through a firm that has obtained a permit issued under section 250d of this chapter. Those services are:
(A) Any financial statement audit or other engagement to be performed in accordance with Statements on Auditing Standards;

(B) Any examination of prospective financial information to be performed in accordance with Statements on Standards for Attestation Engagements; or

(C) Any engagement to be performed in accordance with PCAOB auditing standards;

(b) A permittee of the Territory offering or rendering services or using its CPA title in another state is subject to disciplinary action in the Territory for an act committed in another state for which the licensee would be subject to discipline for an act committed in the other state. Notwithstanding section 250h (a), the Board shall investigate any complaint made by the board of accountancy of another state.

§250r CONSTRUCTION; SEVERABILITY

If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or entity or in any circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the chapter and the application of such provision to others or in other circumstances shall not be affected thereby.
